Community projects:

The Kathabo group believes in pouring back into the community. With various projects underway this is the least that we can do for a community that supports us.

We are also involved with various churches assisting to feed the homeless on an ongoing basis.

We assist government schools by providing a soup kitchen to promote the Government nutritional program and assist schools with materials that enable students to learn better and become educated.

We are also actively involved in the cancer community. We invited Cancer survivors to join in on an event where motorcycles travelled from Johannesburg to Cape Town to raise awareness of the disease. Media legends such as Lilian Dube who survived the disease attended the event.

Our People:

We provide training to ensure that all staff members are competent in their roles.

Our staff is passionate and multi skilled guaranteeing excellent customer care and service. We invest time in selecting staff members that will not only benefit us as a company but our clients.

The Kathabo Group focuses on three core values and we depend on our staff to project these values while completing any project.

Quality, Reliability, and Integrity

Who you can expect to encounter at our business:

MANAGING DIRECTOR:

Lerato Rampana

Lerato is the driving force behind a successful team and business taking on the role of Managing Director since 2008.

Her extensive experience in Marketing and Sales ensure that the vision of the company is clear to staff and customers. She gained this experience at Ernst & Young as Sales Coordinator while also taking on the responsibility of tender and proposal coordination local and internationally.

She has an open door policy when it comes to her staff and more importantly the company clients.

She is also an Affiliation Member of the following:
